

✓ Medication reviews

✓ Reducing over-prescribing and improving medicines safety

✓ Optimising nutrition and hydration in care homes

PrescQIPP
Funded by the NHS for the NHS

Are you a care home pharmacist or pharmacy technician looking for free support to deliver your key priorities?

If the answer is yes, sign up to PrescQIPP today

Your Health Board already subscribes to PrescQIPP, which means you can access a vast range of evidence-based, quality assured resources absolutely free, including succinct clinical guidance and tools on national and local priorities.

Register for free access to PrescQIPP resources
www.prescqipp.info/login

Find out more by clicking on the headings below

Bulletins and webkits on a huge variety of clinical topics, such as pain management, dementia, medicines optimisation in care homes, polypharmacy and many more

Data - A wide selection of data and visualisations to support the resources

Masterclasses - Monthly clinical webinars, across a variety of key therapeutic areas and delivered by national experts in their field

Clinical and skills webinars - Upskill with leading experts for free, our webinars cover topical issues, such as delivering SMRs, polypharmacy, shared decision making and nutrition and hydration in care homes

Virtual Professional Groups that meet monthly/quarterly to network and share good practice, including:

- Practice Plus - support for practice pharmacists
- Antimicrobial stewardship
- Care homes
- Medication safety
- Nutrition
- Pharmacy technicians
- Polypharmacy and deprescribing

'Talking meds' Podcasts - Fortnightly engaging conversations about medicines related dilemmas

Register your interest for a 'welcome webinar'

PrescQIPP is a Community Interest Company and operates on a not-for-profit basis for the benefit of NHS patients, commissioners and primary care clinicians. It is funded by the NHS for the NHS and receives no funding from the Pharmaceutical Industry for any of its resources.

