

✓ Reducing over-prescribing and deprescribing support tools

✓ Medication safety

✓ Antimicrobial stewardship

PrescQIPP
Funded by the NHS for the NHS

Are you a pharmacist or pharmacy technician from an acute trust, mental health trust or community health service looking for free support to deliver your key priorities?

Your Health Board already subscribes to PrescQIPP, which means you can access a vast range of evidence-based, quality assured resources absolutely free, including succinct clinical guidance and tools on national and local priorities.

Register for free access to PrescQIPP resources www.prescqipp.info/login

Find out more by clicking on the headings below

Bulletins and webkits - A huge variety of clinical topics, such as pain, respiratory, diabetes, anticoagulation, polypharmacy & deprescribing and many more

Data - A wide selection of primary and secondary care data and visualisations to support the resources

Masterclasses - Covering a variety of key therapeutic areas including secondary care medicines optimisation topics, and delivered by national experts in their field

Clinical webinars - Live webinars and recordings on a wide range of clinical topics including Paediatric Medicines Optimisation, Long Term Conditions, Genomics and NICE guidance

Skills webinars - Suite of training webinars

Virtual Professional Groups that meet monthly/quarterly to network and share good practice, including:

- Antimicrobial stewardship
- Care homes
- High cost drugs
- Medication safety
- Nutrition
- Pharmacy technicians
- Polypharmacy and deprescribing

'Talking meds' Podcasts - Fortnightly engaging conversations about medicines related dilemmas

Register your interest for a 'welcome webinar'

PrescQIPP is a Community Interest Company and operates on a not-for-profit basis for the benefit of NHS patients, commissioners and primary care clinicians. It is funded by the NHS for the NHS and receives no funding from the Pharmaceutical Industry for any of its resources.

